

The CANADIAN CODE For Volunteer Involvement

Values, Guiding Principles and Standards of Practice

<http://volunteer.ca/content/canadian-code-volunteer-involvement-2012-edition>

Volunteer Management

The selection, supervision and engagement of volunteers <http://volunteer.ca/management>

A variety of resources to assist organization in assessing and managing risk in their volunteer engagement programs www.volunteer.ca/screening

Trends and gaps regarding volunteer engagement <https://volunteer.ca/content/building-bridge-ii-full-report>

Volunteer Recognition

Recognition activities should be customized to the individual and reflect their level of engagement,

See more at: <http://volunteer.ca/recognition>

Discover your volunteers' language of recognition <http://volunteer.ca/vrt/>

The Volunteer Recognition Study, a report on the key drivers that lead to volunteer retention

<http://volunteer.ca/content/2013-volunteer-recognition-study>

Family Volunteering;

Family volunteering involves more than one person in a household or extended family, from different generations volunteering together.

Learn about the different benefits and the importance of family volunteering

<http://www.getvolunteering.ca/pdf/BBFamilyVolFamEN.pdf>

Employer-Supported Volunteerism;

Employer-supported volunteerism encourages a company's staff to donate their time to community causes - See more at:

<http://volunteer.ca/esv>

http://cabm.net/sites/cabm.net/files/images/benefits\_and\_challenges\_of\_ESV.pdf

Volunteerism Amongst New Canadians

New Canadians have much to gain from volunteering here's information on what is standing in their way, and how can governments and non-profit organizations can help;

<http://volunteer.ca/content/cifar-volunteerism-and-civic-engagement-among-new-canadians>

Building blocks for engaging newcomer volunteers

<http://volunteer.ca/newcomers>