Grant Writing with Sask Culture's Dominga Robinson

Thursday, October 25, 2018

UCT Meeting Room, Yorkton Public Library, Yorkton

25 Spaces Available, Advanced Registration Only

9:00am - 4:00pm, Lunch Included

Workshop Summary

This workshop emphasizes first-hand practical experience aimed to teach skills, tips and tricks to help individuals and organizations successfully apply for grants. Learn how funder and decision-makers determine who gets the funding. With grants becoming more competitive and difficult to attain, we want you to gain knowledge on the best ways to get funding.

Workshop Topics

- * How do you develop a strong project?
- * Key elements of proposal and budget development
- * How are grants reviewed and awarded?
- * Top 10 reasons proposals are rejected
- * Do's and Don'ts
- * How to find the right funding program?
- * Sask Culture funding opportunities and online grant platform

You must be registered in advance to attend!
