

BOARD OF DIRECTOR NOMINEES

Jeniffer
Stein
(Melville)

Jen is entering her 17th year with the City of Melville as the Communications and Event Manager. After spending 10 years pursuing education, travel, and career opportunities, she chose to make Melville her home. She is passionate about community development and believes sport, culture and recreation play an important role in building strong, connected and vibrant communities.

Through her work, Jen has gained experience in communications, event planning, marketing and community engagement. Outside of work, Jen enjoys giving back through volunteer involvement on sport and culture boards and committees. As a parent of a young family, Jen is committed to helping create opportunities and a strong future for the next generation while supporting the continued growth of communities.

Michelle
Walker
(Yorkton)

Michelle and her family returned to Yorkton just over 20 years ago and Yorkton has been their home ever since. Michelle has 2 grown children and works in the Training & Development Department of Conexus Credit Union.

Michelle is a Board Member with Yorkton Arts Council and loves the arts community. Michelle is finishing her 1st term on the Parkland Valley Board of Directors and is seeking a second term. Previously she has been involved in other organizations like the Yorkton Music Festival and the Yorkton Community Band and Choir.